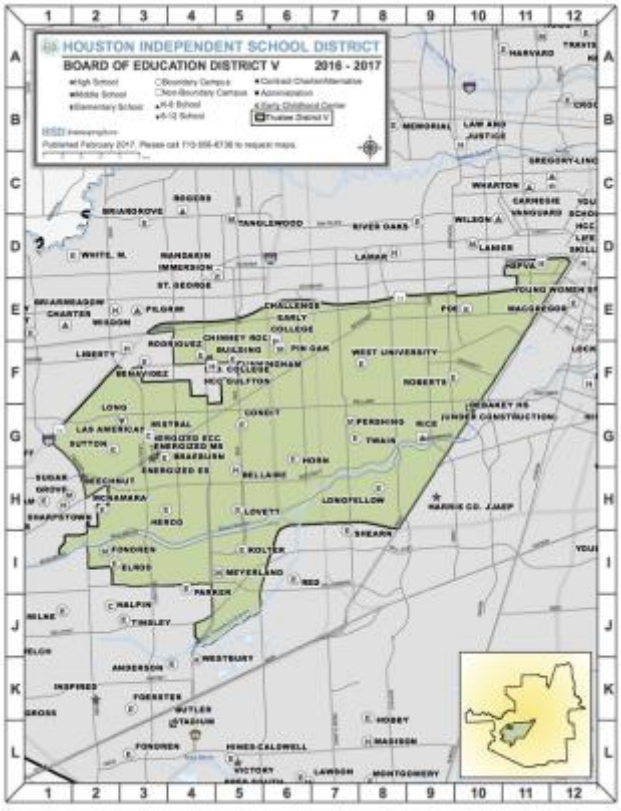
Spend an engaging and insightful evening at Rice University learning about the issues and the candidates for HISD's Board of Trustees District V.

This non-partisan and non-endorsing informational event is hosted by General Academic and Rice University's Center for Local Elections in American Politics and Department of Political Science.

Only the 4 candidates for HISD District V will be in attendance. The format of the forum is as follows:

1. Candidate self-introductions
2. Moderated questions
3. Selected Questions from Audience
4. Candidate closing statements
5. Mingling and refreshments



All Are Invited but Please RSVP

Your vote matters regardless of whether or not you have children in HISD schools. The performance of Houston's public schools impacts everything from property value to crime rates to jobs and tourism.

Seating is limited; therefore, a free reservation is required to attend. Learn more about the HISD Board of Trustees, the candidates, and submit questions:
